Seaview is a village of unspoilt charm with safe, sandy beaches. It is a place for swimming, sailing and walking along the bay. Above all it is a totally relaxing and enjoyable sanctuary from mainland bustle, at any time throughout the year.

The narrow streets of Seaview are a picturesque mixture of little whitewashed cottages and grand Edwardian and Victorian houses. It is also home to the famous Seaview Hotel, providing excellent fine dining and comfortable family bars. In addition there is The Old Fort – a wonderful, vibrant bistro bar where you can eat freshly caught fish and enjoy a glass of chilled dry white wine.

With a collection of clothing and general stores, a post office and the ever popular crabbing net and line shop, Seaview is a perfect hideaway at whatever time of year.

Oaks is a late Victorian semi-detached property in Oakhill Road in the Springvale part of Seaview.

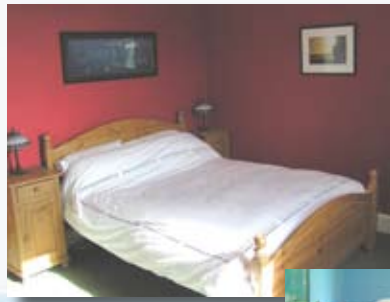

This comfortable and well equipped property is perfect for family holidays and romantic hideaway breaks. It has recently been refurbished to a high standard. It features a secluded garden backing on to the large wooded estate of Springfield Court. At the end of the garden is a large games shed / kids' zone – perfect for lazy days and evening fun. On the eastern side of Oakhill Road lies a nature reserve.

Oaks is just a 1 minute walk from the sea, an easy 10 minute stroll by the sea into Seaview village and a 40 minute walk along the sea wall into Ryde.

The adjoining Red House can be booked together with Oaks for larger parties of up to 10. A lockable back garden gate near the houses provides access between the two properties.
